

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to recommend Kolby Ray, whom I have known for the past five years. During that time, I've had the opportunity to work closely with him in group settings and student advocacy efforts, and I've consistently been impressed by his character, communication skills, and ability to connect with others.

Kolby is naturally outgoing and builds rapport easily with people from all backgrounds. He brings empathy and understanding into his interactions, which makes him an effective team member and someone others genuinely trust and feel comfortable around. In collaborative environments, he communicates well, listens carefully, and contributes positively to the group dynamic.

One quality that stands out most is his willingness to learn and grow. While mentoring him, I saw firsthand that he listened thoughtfully to advice and consistently applied feedback in a mature and constructive way. He demonstrated initiative, accountability, and a strong desire to improve both personally and professionally.

I also worked alongside Kolby in advocating for students, where he showed compassion, reliability, and a sincere commitment to helping others. He approaches challenges with a calm and respectful attitude and works well with teams toward shared goals.

I am confident that Kolby would be a valuable addition to any workplace or organization. I highly recommend him and believe he will bring professionalism, empathy, and strong interpersonal skills to any role he takes on.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Wallentine LSW
